

April News

Dear Members,

Welcome to the April edition of JMGA WA News.

The next JMGA WA event will be held on Wednesday 29 April.

Remember your cash and credit cards as AJS will be opening their doors especially for JMGA WA members to make some after hours purchases! Meet at AJS, Suite 4 1st Floor 564-568 Hay Street, Perth 6-7pm, followed by dinner at Arirang Korean BBQ Restaurant (300 Murray St Perth). This will take the place of our usual monthly meeting for April 2015.

Please remember to submit your news to newsletter@jmgawa.com.au by the second Tuesday of the month. If submitting images, please use .jpg format. The next deadline will be 12 May.

With best wishes,
Hannah Jago
Newsletter Co-ordinator

Early Bird Closing Soon

Just a reminder that the early bird discount for the JMGA Conference in July Edges, Borders Gaps is closing on the 30 April.

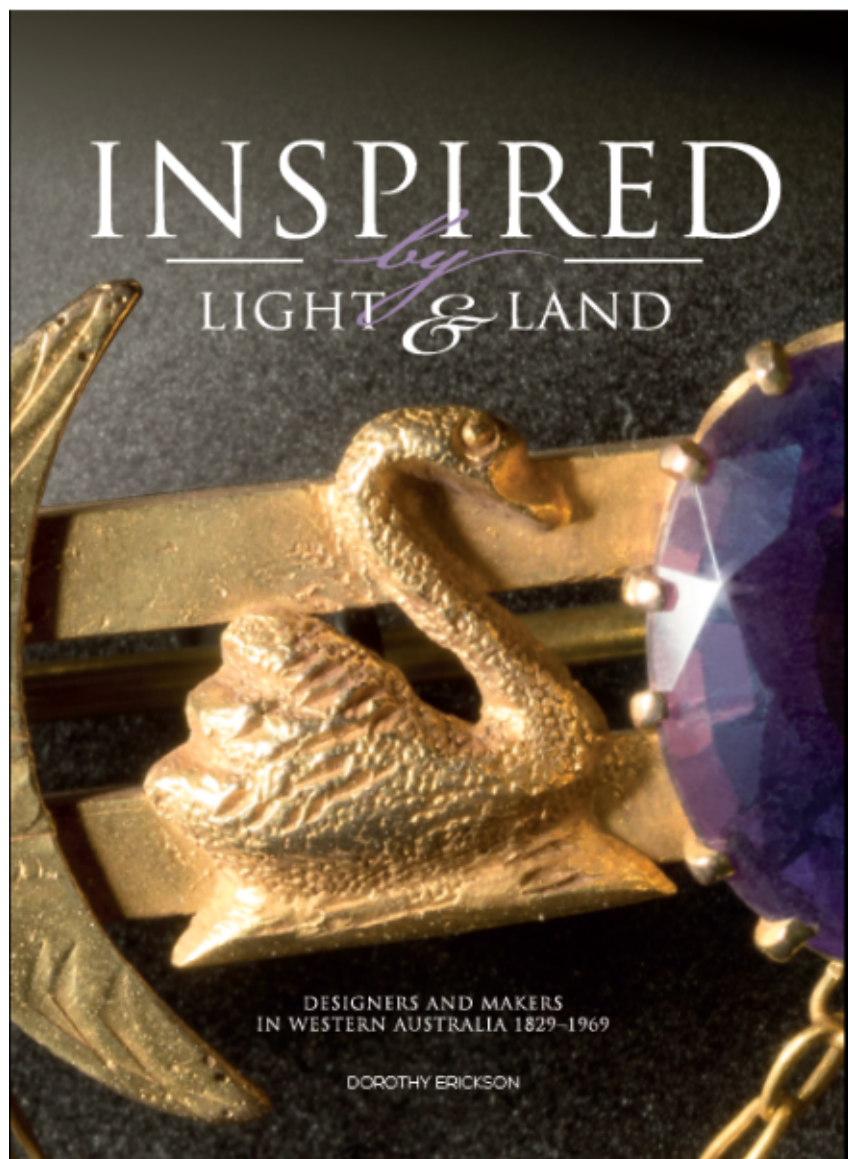

Exhibitions

Transplantation: A Sense of Place and Culture

Transplantation is an exhibition of contemporary narrative jewellery that explores the sense of place and cultural identity through the theme of transplantation. Artists based in the UK and Australia have explored their own sense of place and individual cultural identity as a consequence of their personal and family experiences of relocation.

Artists: Jivan Astfalck, Rosanne Bartley, Nick Bastin, Norman Cherry, Lin Cheung, Jack Cunningham, Anna Davern, Joung-Mee Do, Sheridan Kennedy, Bridie Lander, Jo Pond and Laura Potter

Location: 64 Wittenoom St, Bunbury until 7 June 2015.

Dorothy Erickson's Inspired by Light and Land: Designers and Makers in Western Australia 1829-1969, an endeavour some 40 years in the making, is an introduction to the work of the artist-crafts people, designers and makers who drew their inspiration from this western land. It is the first coverage of this wide ranging topic and an essential companion for anyone interested in Western Australian art, design and heritage.

$90

The Western Australian Museum and Dorothy Erickson request the pleasure of your company in releasing Inspired by Light and Land.

Please join us on Tuesday, 12th of May 2015 — 5.30–6.30pm.

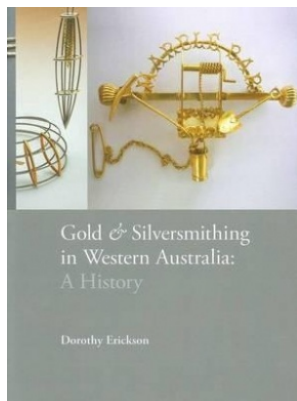

Western Australian Museum, Perth Cultural Centre.

Book sales will be made available on the evening for signing.

Please RSVP to sophie.york@museum.wa.gov.au or (08) 6552 7810 before Wednesday, 29th of April 2015.

Take Care of Your Books!

If you have a copy of Dorothy Erickson's Gold and Silversmithing in Western Australia: A History, you need to take care of your copy! The books are currently selling on the rare book market for over USD$2,000.

A 1979 bracelet of Dorothy Erickson's is now in the Dallas Art Museum where the Inge Assenbaum collection is now. It is good to see major private collections ending up in public collections. Well done Dorothy!
